Queen Mine, Outhouse

HAER No. WY-19-B

Location: On Centennial Ridge in Medicine Bow National Forest, approximately 2.3 miles (in a direct line) southwest of Centennial, Albany County, Wyoming

Date of Construction: c. 1924

Present Owner: United States Forest Service, Medicine Bow National Forest

Present Use: Abandoned

Significance: This structure is associated with events that have made significant contributions to the broad patterns of our history, i.e., early 20th century mining for precious metals in Wyoming and the western United States. The log outhouse has a lean-to log roof and door opening on its south facade and measures 6 feet E-W by 5 Feet N-S.
